Introduction

A note to students about this handbook:
This handbook contains information on regulations pertaining to academic policies and regulations for both students and lecturers. If you are unsure of the meaning of any of the regulations or you need help in determining how you can meet the requirements to graduate in your program, come to the Registrar’s Office. We will be happy to help you in any way we can.

About Regent-Ghana:
The Regent University College of Science and Technology is located in Accra, Ghana. It was founded in 2003. Its satellite campuses include: McCarthy Hill Campus, City Campus, Roquah Campus and The King’s Campus. The King’s Campus also houses the corporate offices of the University.
Regent-Ghana has three Schools and one Institute. The three schools currently running offer undergraduate and graduate programmes: School of Business and Economics (SBE), School of Informatics and Engineering (SIE), School of Theology, Missions and Human Development (STMHD). The departments under SBE include: Department of Accounting and Business Studies, Department of Management Studies and Regent Development Centre. Under SIE are the following departments: Department of Informatics, Department of Engineering, Department of Mathematics and Statistics and Regent Technology Centre. Departments under the STMHD include: Department of Theology and Ministry, Department of Psychology and Human Development and Centre for Studies in African Development. The only institute we have currently, the Institute of Languages and General Studies, has the following Units: Centre for Language Studies (CLS), Regent Learning Centre and Centre for Pre-University Education. A number of interdisciplinary programmes cross the boundaries between schools and disciplines in the Centre’s operations.

Regent-Ghana is locally affiliated to the Kwame Nkrumah University of Science and Technology (KNUST), Trinity Theological Seminary (TTS) and University of Education, Winneba (UEW). Its international partners currently include: Deggendorf University of Applied Sciences (Germany), Lulea University of Technology (Sweden), Acadia University (Canada), Maastricht School of Management (the Netherlands) and Wheelock College (USA). It is also a member of the Conference for Heads of Private Universities, Ghana.

The vision of Regent-Ghana is to produce purpose-driven human resource committed to socio-economic and spiritual renewal, with science and technology expertise in a competitive global environment.

Regent-Ghana seeks to establish and maintain one of the leading Universities of Science and Technology in Africa, where every member of faculty, staff, and alumni of the University is committed to socio-economic and spiritual renewal. This understanding informs and fashions the investment we make into our students, faculty, and supportive staff. Motivated by a dedicated and visionary faculty, ICT-driven curricula, and Christian ethical values, students will be fully prepared to effectively spearhead national and industrial development anywhere in the global community.

The principal governing body of the University is the University Council.

Authority in purely academic matters lies with the Senate (Senatus Academicus) invariably referred to as Academic Board.

The Registry provides administrative support to the University for the Recruitment, Admission, Registration, Examination and Graduation of students, among other duties. It also supplies the secretariat for many boards and committees and has responsibility for the administration of academic quality and standards. The Registry is headed by the Vice President (Administration and Development).

The Regent-Ghana Students’ Union (RGSU) provides a variety of services and facilities for the student population. The RGSU executives and parliament represent students on various committees and organizations both within and without the University.

Authority of the Handbook:
Curriculum and course requirements and descriptions, academic regulations, and other matters, are established, modified, and approved by the Senate of RUCST or in some cases by the University Council, and are recorded in the handbook or its addenda. By registering in any course or programme described herein, a student agrees to abide by the pertinent sections of the current handbook.

Disclaimer:
This handbook operates in relation to the University’s academic sessions. Its contents are subject to continuing review and revision without notice other than through the regular processes of Regent University College of Science and Technology. Students admitted to the University are required to pay deposits on tuition fees, as confirmation of their acceptance of the offer of admission. These fees may not be refundable in either part or whole. By acceptance of the offer of admission and the taking of the matriculation oath, a student is deemed to have agreed to abide by any change.

The University reserves the right to refuse admission to any prospective student without any reasons. The University also reserves the right to limit enrolment in any course, course section, or programme, but will make every reasonable effort to offer courses required for specific programmes and give priority in course registration to students in that programme. It does not guarantee enrolment in any course or course section not required for a student’s programme.

Some departments or schools provide students with documents descriptive of their individual offerings or requirements. In case of inconsistency, the regulations contained in this handbook prevail. Interpretation of regulations or requirements is made by a Dean or the Registrar and is open to written appeal to the Academic Board.

Regent University College of Science and Technology does not accept any responsibility for loss or damage suffered or incurred by any person, group or organization as a result of suspension or termination of services, courses or classes caused by reason of strikes, work stoppages, labour disagreements, slowdowns, lockouts, disputes, riots, weather, damage to University property or for any other cause.

Responsibility of Students:
It is expected that each student who registers at Regent University College of Science and Technology will be familiar with the contents of the handbook and has accepted responsibility for meeting curriculum requirements, completing registration and related forms accurately, and complying with published dates and deadlines.

Prospective students may obtain admission forms online or obtain copies in the Admission’s Office. Plans are afoot to enable students pay and obtain access to Admission forms online for consideration for admission.

1.0 Regulations & Policies
1.1 Changes in Regulations & Policies:
The University has several policies that are approved by the Governing Council and that apply to all students. As well, the Schools and Departments have rules and regulations that apply to all students registered in courses and programmes offered in the Schools. The University assumes that each student has become familiar with the policies. In applying to the Schools, the student assumes certain responsibilities to the University and the Schools and, if admitted and registered, shall be subject to the rules, regulations, and policies cited in the handbook, as amended from time to time.

1.2 Advice and Guidance:
Students are to have academic advisors to guide their academic development. Students may contact their HODs to know their academic advisors.

While departmental counselors and the faculty officers are always available to give advice and guidance, it must be clearly understood that the ultimate responsibility rests with the student for completeness and correctness of course selection, for compliance with prerequisite, co-requisite requirements, observance of exceeded courses, etc., for completion of programme details, for proper observance of degree requirements, the distribution requirements and for observance of regulations, deadlines, etc. Students are responsible for seeking guidance from other responsible officers if they are in any doubt; misunderstanding, or advice received from another student will not be accepted as cause for dispensation from any regulation, deadline, programme or degree requirement.

2.0 Student Personal Information & Identity

2.1 Personal information:
Personal information is a vital part of the student’s official University record and is used to issue statements of results, transcripts, graduation information, diplomas and other official documents. Any change in the following must therefore be reported immediately to the Registry. The personal information of each student should include the following:

2.1.1. Legal name.
2.1.2. Citizenship status
2.1.3. Birth Certificate

2.2 Students’ Register:

2.2.1 Students are known only by their names that have been written in the Register of Matriculation and Register of Societies.

2.2.2 In the case where a student wants his or her name changed, he or she may apply to the Registry. Generally, changes of names are not allowed except in the case of a woman who marries. The University authorities will require proof of the change of name before it can be effected. No abbreviations are accepted.

2.3 Student Registration and Numbering System:
2.3.1 Student Personal Number: It must comprise three digits, ranging from 001 - 999.

2.3.2 School Code:

School of Informatics and Engineering: -01 – 05
- Department of Informatics: -01
- Department of Engineering: -02
- Department of Mathematics and Statistics: -03

School of Business and Economics: -06 - 10?
- Department of Accounting & Business: -06
- Department of Management Studies: -07

School of Theology, Ministry and Human Development: -11 - 15?
- Department of Theology and Ministry: -11
- Department of Psychology and Human Development: -12

Postgraduate programmes
- Masters – prefix ‘M’
- Doctorate – prefix ‘D’

2.3.3 Year of Registration: It must comprise two digits, e.g. 06 for 2006 or 07 for 2007

2.3.4 The Unique Student Personal I.D. Number:

Each student at the University is assigned a unique personal identification number in conformity with the above numbering system. Thus, given that one Kojo Ofori is the 5th Undergraduate student to register in the Department of Informatics in the School of Informatics and Engineering in the year 2010, his registration number will read as follows: 0050110, where the first three digits (005) represent the student’s personal number, the second two digits (01) represent the Department code and the last two (10), the year in which the student was registered.

2.3.5 In the case of postgraduate students; Master’s degree and Doctoral degree students have the letter M and D respectively in front of their numbers: e.g. M0050110 or D0050110

2.3.6 The number thus created is confidential. The University, through the Policy on Access to Student Records, strictly controls access to Personal I.D. numbers. The University assumes and expects that students will protect the confidentiality of their Personal I.D.s.

2.4 Student Identity Card: Students shall be recognized by the wearing of the prescribed I.D. Cards of the University which bears the student’s photograph and also serves as evidence of registration in the University and as a library card. The loss of the card must be reported promptly to the Registry, and the card must be surrendered if a student withdraws from the University. There is a fee for the replacement of lost cards.

2.4.2 All students are issued with a University Identity Card on registration at the commencement of their studies. In the case of students whose registration extends over more than one University session, revalidation of the card will be necessary at the beginning of each Session.

2.4.3 The card remains the property of the University and may be withdrawn at any time and shall be surrendered if the holder ceases to be a student of the University.

2.4.4 The use of the card is personal to the individual to whom it is issued and no student shall permit the use of their card by another person, whether a member of the University or not.

2.4.5 No student may make use of an identity card belonging to another person for any purpose.

2.4.6 No student may use or tamper with a student identity card in such a way as to use or gain benefit from or access to buildings, services or other facilities of the University to which they are not entitled.

2.4.7 Students are required to produce the card to confirm their identity when asked to do so by a member of University Staff.

2.5 Custody of Student Academic Records:
Academic records are normally under the custodial responsibility of the academic departments.

2.6 Mailing Address:
Address information must be viewed and changed in the Registry. It is the student’s responsibility to ensure that the mailing address is kept up-to-date.

2.7 E-Mail Address:
As a student of the Regent University College of Science and Technology, you have automatic access to the Information Commons, which is your passport to e-mail, the library and the Internet. Once you have your ID Card, you must activate your Regent University College of Science and Technology e-mail account. Setting up a Regent-Mail account is mandatory. Students may contact the I.T. Department for their Regent-Mail account.

2.8 Cyber Campus:
This is the electronic campus to facilitate interaction among students and lecturers, students and students, and among the university community generally. Students can access lecturer’s notes uploaded for their prior reading and preparation for upcoming lectures. Assignments can also be put out on this virtual campus. Students (and other members of Regent Community) are to contact the Cyber Campus Administrator for their access codes and tutorials on the use of this platform.

3.0 Academic Calendar

3.1 Streams and Enrollment Management:

3.1.1 The University Calendar consists of
a. Two sixteen-week semesters for the Morning, Afternoon and Evening Streams.

b. Three 12-week trimesters for the Weekend School.

c. The academic year begins in September. However, there is a secondary enrolment of students in January.

3.1.2 The University makes every reasonable effort to plan and control enrolment to ensure that all of our students are qualified to complete the programmes to which they are admitted, and to strike a practicable balance between enrolment and available instructional resources. Sometimes such a balance cannot be struck and the number of qualified students exceeds the instructional resources that we can reasonably make available while at the same time maintaining the quality of instruction. In such cases, we must reserve the right to limit enrolment in the programmes, courses, or sections listed in the Calendar and Registration Handbook, and to withdraw courses or sections for which enrolment or resources are insufficient. The University will not be liable for any loss, damages, or other expenses that such limitations or withdrawals might cause.

3.2 Years, Sessions, Semesters and Trimesters:

3.2.1 Students normally register for an academic year on either a full-time or part-time basis. Exceptions may include students registered for modules on a credit accumulation basis, students repeating modules, those on exchange visits and students who may have taken an approved interruption of studies.

3.2.2 The 32 weeks when the University is "in session" is divided into two semesters, each notionally comprising sixteen weeks of learning, teaching and assessment, organised as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Morning, Afternoon and Evening Streams (15-18 credit hrs each per semester)</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Teaching and learning for Semester 1:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Teaching and learning for Semester 2:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Weekend School (12 credit hrs each per semester)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Teaching and learning for Trimester 1:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Teaching and learning for Trimester 2:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Teaching and learning for Trimester 3:</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

3.2.3 The above model does not apply to part-time programmes provided as part of the University's continuing education activity. In addition, some taught elements may be undertaken outside the 32 weeks (Morning, Afternoon and Evening Streams) when the University is in session. Where this is the case, it shall be specified in published programme requirements.
3.3 Semester Hour:
The semester hour is defined as a 55-minute lecture/field/project work period per week.

3.4 Semester Tests:

3.4.1 No term test or combination of term tests held in the last two weeks of classes at the end of any term may have a total weight greater than 25% of the final mark.

3.4.2 All term tests must be held on or before the last day of classes. No term test may be held during the University Examination Periods, except for those in F or I-courses scheduled by the University.

3.5 Missed Semester Tests:
Students who miss a term test will be assigned a mark of zero for that test unless they satisfy the following conditions:

3.5.1 Students who miss a term test for reasons entirely beyond their control may, within one week of the missed test, submit to the Lecturer or department (programme) a written request for special consideration explaining the reasons for missing the test, and attaching appropriate documentation, such as a medical certificate.

3.5.2 If a written request with documentation cannot be submitted within one week, the department may consider a request to extend the time limit.

3.5.3 A student whose explanation is accepted by the department will be entitled to one of the following considerations:

a. In courses where there is no other term work as part of the evaluation scheme, a makeup test must be given.

b. In other courses, the department/programme may either give a makeup test or increase the weighting of other graded work by the amount of the missed test. In no case may the weighting of the final examination in any course be increased beyond 2/3 of the total course mark.

3.5.4. If the student is granted permission to take a makeup test and misses it, then he or she is assigned a mark of zero for the test unless the department/programme is satisfied that missing the makeup test was unavoidable. No student is automatically entitled to a second makeup test. This means that if a department is persuaded of the student's grounds for missing the makeup test, it may decide to compensate for the missed test in whatever way it chooses, which could be by giving another makeup test; the student cannot demand another makeup test.

3.5.5. A student who misses a term test cannot subsequently petition for late withdrawal from the course without academic penalty on the grounds that he or she has had no term work returned before the drop date.

3.6 Semester Work
3.6.1 Full-time: The student shall be required to carry a minimum work-load of 15 credits per semester and a maximum of 21 credits.

3.6.2 Part-time: The student shall be required to carry a work-load of 9 credits per semester.

3.6.3 Lecturers MUST assign, grade and return at least one significant assignment as early as possible.

3.6.4 All term work must be submitted on or before the last day of classes in the course concerned, unless an earlier date is specified by the Lecturer. Students who for reasons beyond their control are unable to submit an assignment by its deadline must obtain approval from their Lecturer for an extension of the deadline. This extension may be for no longer than the end of the Final Examination period. If additional time beyond this period is required, students must petition through the HOD of the School before the end of the examination period for a further extension of the deadline.

3.6.5 Students are strongly advised to keep rough and draft work and copies of their essays and assignments, as these may be required by the instructor.

3.6.6 All written work that has been evaluated should be returned with such detailed comment as the instructor deems appropriate, and time made available for discussion of it. Any enquiries about a graded piece of work must be made within one month of the return date of the work. Instructors must keep unclaimed term work for at least six months beyond the end of the course.

3.7 Marking Schemes

3.7.1 Both (essays and equivalent work) as well as examinations (including term tests) are normally required for standing in courses. In courses where only one form of evaluation is used, a single piece of work cannot count for all of the final mark.

3.7.2 Self-evaluation by individual students or by groups of students is not permissible unless the specific consent of the Committee on Academic Standards is received.

3.7.3 As early as possible in each course, as and no later than the last date to enroll in courses, the instructor must announce in a regularly-scheduled class the methods by which student performance will be evaluated, their relative weight in the final mark, including any discretionary factor, and the due dates. These methods must be in accord with what is applicable in the University and Schools. Instructors must file a copy of their marking scheme for each course with the Departmental Office at the beginning of the semester.

4.0 Module/Course Coding and Programme Duration

4.1 Coding and numbering of Modules/Courses:

4.1.1 All degree courses shall have letter and number codes (made up of four letters and four digits) composed as follows (e.g.) SIMS2563.
The first two letters (SI), represent the School or Faculty of the University College which runs the course; in this example the School of Informatics and Engineering.

The next two (MS), represents the programme area; in this example Mathematics and Statistics.

The four digit number (2563) represents the Level/Year and Semester in which the course is offered and the number of credit hours per week, ranging generally as follows:

1\textsuperscript{st} Year Courses: 1500 - 1990
2\textsuperscript{nd} Year Courses: 2500 - 2990
3\textsuperscript{rd} Year Courses: 3500 - 3990
4\textsuperscript{th} Year Courses: 4500 – 4990

The first two digits (25), represents the Level/Year of the course; in this example, Level 200 or 2\textsuperscript{nd} Year.

The third digit (6), represents the semester in which the course is offered; in this example the Second Semester. The odd digits (1, 3, 5 and 7) represent the first semesters from level 100 to 400 whiles the even digits (2, 4, 6 and 8) represent the second semesters from level 100 to 400.

The fourth and last digit (3) represents the number of credit hours per week; in this example Three Credit Hours.

4.2. Time Limits (Undergraduate Programmes):

4.2.1 A student shall be enrolled as a full-time student for the minimum period allowed for the programme of study.

4.2.2 Programmes of study prescribed for degrees of the University shall extend for at least the periods indicated below:

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Programme</th>

</tr>
<tr>
<td>Bachelor of Science – BSc (Hons)</td>
<td>4 years</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Bachelor of Business Administration – BBA (Hons)</td>
<td>4 years</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

4.2.3 The period of study required of individual students by the University may be reduced in accordance with Regulations that the Senate or its delegated authority may approve of from time to time.

4.2.4 The maximum time within which a student may complete an award is calculated from the date of first registration to the date of the final award and is twice the minimum period stated in (4.2.1) above, subject to an overall maximum of 8 years. See also 4.2.5 below.
4.2.5 A student maybe allowed the following maximum number of semesters beyond the prescribed period to complete the requirements for the award of the Certificate/degree for which he/she is studying.

- Problem solving skills
- Time management
- How to take lecture notes

- Computer skills and how to use Regent Ghana Library.

5.2.3 The induction programme will be provided alongside more traditional “Freshers’ Week” activities.

5.3 Attendance and Academic Duty:

5.3.1 Attendance at all class periods is required. Excessive absence from classes will affect the final grade. Two weeks of absence lowers a student’s grade by half a grade (e.g., B to C). After five weeks of absence, the student normally receives an ‘F’. Three tardies equals one absence. A student will not be excused from classes the first and the last weeks of any semester. Such absences without appropriate permission will count double.

5.3.2 In all cases, a student who is absent for a Cumulative Period of 21 clear Days from all lectures, tutorials, practicals and other activities prescribed for any course in any semester shall be deemed to have withdrawn from the course and therefore shall not be permitted to sit for the semester examination.

5.3.3 Patterns of Attendance: The standard pattern of attendance, for a student who is registered on a full-time basis, is based on a credit load of 36 credit hours per session or year. Other patterns of attendance, for students registered on either a full-time or part-time basis, within the overall time limits for the award concerned, shall be subject to the agreement of the School(s) concerned and subject to a maximum registration for 32 credit hours in any one session or year.

5.3.4 A student must not allow paid employment or other activities to conflict with the study required by the modules and programme for which the student is registered.

5.3.5 Full-time students are required to keep the two University semesters/three Weekend School trimesters every year in full. Students are also expected to attend during such additional periods as may be prescribed for their programme of study.
5.3.6 Part-time students are required to keep the pattern of attendance specified by the programme on which they are registered.

5.3.7 Any student who wishes to be absent from the University for any part of any term or other period of required attendance must first obtain permission from the Head of School (or nominee).

5.4 Reasonable diligence in relation to learning and Teaching:

5.4.1 A student is required to show reasonable diligence in relation to learning and teaching for each module, and the whole programme, for which the student is registered.

5.4.2 Failure to show reasonable diligence in relation to learning and teaching shall be defined as:

a. Absence from more than 30 per cent of those teaching sessions at which a record of attendance is kept or failure to submit assessed work for a programme on more than two occasions during an academic year; or

b. Absence from teaching sessions or failure to submit assessed work, contrary to requirements of a module description or a programme specification; or

c. Failure to attend all teaching sessions and submit all required assessed work after a formal written warning has been given to the student by the Dean of School; or

d. Failure to register for modules to the required credit value for the programme (appropriate to the level and stage of study); or

e. Failure to report to the Dean of School (or nominee) an absence of more than 5 consecutive days.

f. Students should take reasonable steps to ensure that their attendance is accurately recorded.

5.4.3 A student will not be treated as failing to show reasonable diligence in relation to learning and teaching where the Dean of School (or nominee):

a. approves a self-certified medical certificate provided as soon as practicable by the student relating to an absence of up to 5 consecutive days. (Self-certification is not acceptable after a student has been absent for a total of 10 days in an academic year); or

b. approves a certificate from the student’s medical practitioner relating to absence which lasts for more than 5 consecutive days; or

c. accepts that other documented mitigating circumstances excuse the student’s absence; or

d. has granted permission to be absent for a specified period.

5.4.4 If a Dean of School (or nominee) concludes that there is a prima facie case that a student is failing to show reasonable diligence in relation to learning and teaching, the reasonable diligence procedure may be initiated to require the student to:

a. withdraw from a programme; or
b. be barred from an opportunity of assessment in one or more modules.

5.4.5 The following are the consequences of being barred from an opportunity of assessment on the basis of a failure to demonstrate reasonable diligence:

a. A student who is barred from assessment will be permitted only one opportunity of assessment.

b. Where a student has been barred from an opportunity of assessment of a module, but nevertheless attends an examination or submits other work for assessment, the marks for that assessment shall not normally be considered by the examination board.

c. The student’s transcript shall record a mark of zero (failed attempt) for the assessment opportunity from which the student is barred.

d. Where a student has been barred from an opportunity of assessment of a module, for the purposes of calculating the degree classification the maximum mark that can be achieved in such a module, when it is subsequently assessed, is the pass mark. On the student’s transcript, however, the actual mark should be recorded for the second attempt.

e. A student substituting a module is only permitted one attempt at assessment in the substitute module. On the transcript, a mark of 0% is recorded for the first module and the actual mark for the substitute module.

5.4.6 The procedure to be followed will be as approved by the Senate or delegated authority from time to time and described in The Reasonable Diligence Code of Practice.

5.5 Academic duty in relation to examinations:

5.5.1 A student shall take the first opportunity of assessment in a module unless:

a. the Dean of School (or nominee) recommends that the student be allowed to defer assessment, on the ground that the student’s performance in the assessment is likely to be adversely affected by medical or other exceptional factors; or

b. the student has been barred from the opportunity of assessment on grounds of failure to show reasonable diligence in relation to learning and teaching; or

c. the student has been excluded from attendance at an examination by the Vice President for Academic Affairs;

d. the student, with the permission of the Dean of School (or nominee), elects to defer assessment until the following main examination period.
5.5.2 Where a student fails to take an opportunity for assessment of a module, a Board of Examiners may recommend to the Progress Committee that the student be barred from any further assessment in that module or, in exceptional circumstances, that the student be required to withdraw from the programme, unless documented mitigating circumstances have been submitted which are considered to justify failure to take the opportunity.

5.5.3 Taking an opportunity for assessment means making a bona fide attempt at an examination or other assessment, in the academic opinion of the Examination Board.

5.6 Late Submission of Course Work:

5.6.1 All assignments must be completed and submitted on or before the date required except in cases where previous arrangements have been made with the lecturer. No lecturer is obligated to accept late assignments. Under unusual circumstances, the student in consultation with the course lecturer may be granted two weeks’ exemption to complete course work. The student must initiate all such requests. After this, grades are permanently recorded and not subject to change.

5.6.2 Where a student submits assessed work that contributes to a final module mark after a prescribed deadline, or after an agreed extension, a penalty in the form of a reduction of the mark shall be imposed in accordance with the Undergraduate and Postgraduate Assessment Protocols.

6.0 Programmes, Modules and Credits

6.1 Programme of Study:

6.1.1 A programme of study consists of a set of modules, which together have a defined set of learning outcomes including intellectual and practical skills and which a student must complete to the satisfaction of a Board of Examiners in order to be eligible for the award of a qualification. Certain programmes may also include practical training and other elements which a student must complete to the satisfaction of the Board of Examiners.

6.1.2 Each programme comprises a number of stages (levels), at the completion of which a formal decision is taken as appropriate on progress to the next stage or on the award of the qualification. Each stage normally consists of modules amounting to 36 credit hours (taken, in the case of full-time students, within a single academic year). Where an additional year of study abroad/year in industry is included as a requirement of a programme to which a student has been admitted, the year abroad shall be regarded, for purposes of credit and progression, as an additional stage between stages 2 and 3 (Levels 200 and 300).

6.1.3 All modules and programmes of study must be approved by the Senate before they are advertised and before any student may be admitted.

6.1.4 Programmes of Study for the award of diploma or undergraduate degrees shall consist of courses for each of which a number of credit hours shall be prescribed. Each module shall cover a period of not more than one semester, with the exception of project work.
6.1.5 Departments shall submit details of course credit hours and total Credit hours for the programme classified as REQUIRED (CORE) COURSES and OPEN ELECTIVES for approval by the Senate.

6.1.6 Details of the programmes and modules available to students, the programme requirements, methods of tuition and assessment shall be published annually by the Academic Office.

6.1.7 Structure of Programme

The programme shall be divided into semesters, each course falling within one semester only. Courses in each Semester shall consist of:

- Required Courses
- Open Electives

Open electives may be selected from any Department or any other teaching institution in the University. Until there is an improvement in the facilities in the University, the implementation of the open electives concept is to be optional.

6.2 Programme Requirements:

6.2.1 The specific requirements for every award of the University approved by the Senate are detailed in the programme requirements. Programme requirements must include, as appropriate, the reference number, title, level and credit value of the modules to be completed, clearly indicating which modules are compulsory or optional, together with any information on other additional course elements which may be required for the award.

6.2.2 Where identified in a programme, students may take optional modules from a range of subjects identified by the programme requirements. There may be one or more such modules. They may be in a subject distinct from the students’ main discipline and may be taught in a different Department or School.

6.2.3. The programme requirements may indicate specific modules which must be passed at each stage and any other requirements for progression or for successful completion of the programme.

6.2.4 All requirements for an award of the University will normally bear credit. Where exceptions are necessary (e.g. for reasons of professional accreditation) they must be specifically approved by the Senate or delegated authority.

6.2.5 Where programme requirements include a year of study abroad or in industry, it will normally be assessed and contribute to the final degree classification. Where exceptions are necessary (e.g. for years leading to separate qualifications) they must be specifically approved by the Senate or delegated authority. The year abroad / in industry shall comprise 36 credit hours in order to denote the notional learning hours undertaken.

6.2.6 Credit hours for Programmes
i. The total number of credit hours required by a student to qualify for a diploma or degree shall be determined by the Faculty/Department within the following ranges:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Programme</th>
<th>Minimum</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1-year Certificate</td>
<td>12</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2-year Certificate</td>
<td>60</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2-year Diploma</td>
<td>60</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3-year Undergraduate Degree</td>
<td>90</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4-year Undergraduate Degree</td>
<td>120</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

ii. The above credit hours are inclusive of lecture time, practical work, thesis writing, projects, seminar and workshops. Two to four hours of practicals are equal to one credit hour.

6.3 Changes in Programmes of Study:

6.3.1 The programmes of study, which our Calendar lists and describes, are available for the years to which the Calendar applies. They may not necessarily be available in later years. If the University or the School must change the content of programmes of study or withdraw them, all reasonably possible advance notice and alternative instruction will be given. The University, however, will not be liable for any loss, damages, or other expenses that such changes might cause.

6.3.2 For each programme of study offered by the University through the School, the courses necessary to complete the minimum requirements of the programme will be made available annually. We must, however, reserve the right otherwise to change the content of courses, instructors and instructional assignments, enrolment limitations, pre-requisites and co-requisites, grading policies, and timetables without prior notice.

6.3.3 Any change of programme, whether adding a course, dropping a course or changing course sections, must be made within the period stipulated in the Academic Calendar. All changes require the approval of the student’s advisor. No change of programme is complete until the proper forms are filed at the Academic Office.

6.3.4 Interruption of study programme:

A student who wishes to interrupt his/her study programme shall apply in advance to the Dean of his/her School, stating reasons why he/she wants to interrupt his/her study programme and permission should be duly granted before he/she leaves the University. A student who breaks his/her studies for more than six continuous semesters shall be deemed to have lost any accumulated credits. Such a student may be allowed to re-apply for admission into the University.

6.4 Registration, Cancellation and Repetition of Courses:

6.4.1 Registration

i. Every Student must be admitted into a School/Department for a Programme of study and must be properly registered for courses during the official registration period at the beginning of each semester. The student shall plan his/her course in consultation with his/her Academic Adviser.
ii. Continuing students who trail between one (1) and two (2) courses shall be required to re-sit in 21 days. Failing that such students can add only up to 4 or 5 courses of the ensuing semester.

iii. Those trailing two (2) or more courses shall be placed on probation and will not be allowed to register any new courses till they have redeemed themselves.

iv. Students shall report on the day that the University re-opens and register within the normal period as would be determined by the University. It shall be permissible for those who are unable to register within the said period to undergo late registration.

v. A fine to be determined by the University shall be imposed for late registration. Formal registration ends on the last day of the period of late registration.

vi. Excuse for Delayed Registration

(a) A student who is unable to register within the formal registration period on grounds of ill-health, shall on provision of a medical report issued or endorsed by the Director of University Health Services, be allowed to register within seven days from the day of the closure of formal registration.

(b) In the event of the inability of such a student to register within the seven days stipulated in paragraph “a” above, he/she will be asked to pay a penalty to be determined by the university.

vi. Registration by Proxy

(a) There shall be no registration by proxy.

vii. A student who does not duly register for the semester is not allowed to participate in lectures and examinations.

viii. Any student who is absent from lectures, tutorials and practical at any semester shall be deemed not to have satisfied the attendance in the end of semester and shall not be allowed to take part in the end of semester examinations.

ix. Students who register late will be made to pay a penalty to be determined by the university.

6.4.2 Cancellation of Registration/Deferment of Courses:

Students who wish to cancel registration [defer their courses] must do so in writing to the registrar’s office. Before deferment is approved, they must:

a. Pay any outstanding fees; return any books to the Library and pay any outstanding fines;

b. Vacate any laboratory and return any equipment in their possession.

6.4.3 Cancellation of Courses after the official Registration/Cancellation period:

Registered students who do not attend lectures or complete further course work or write the end of semester examinations will earn a failing grade (F) OR “I” for incomplete work.
6.4.4 Passed Courses May Not Be Repeated:
There shall be no supplementary examinations or provisions to “upgrade” a pass mark. Grades of all courses taken, except those officially cancelled, remain on record.

6.5.1 Change of Stream:
Where possible, students may be permitted to transfer from regular to weekend sections. Any change of stream, whether from regular to weekend, or whatever the stream, change must be made within the period stipulated in the Academic Calendar. All changes require the approval of the Programme Leader or Head of Department. No change of programme is complete until the proper forms are filed at the Academic Office.

6.5.2 Corrections to the Academic Record:
The University will accept requests for corrections to an academic record at any time. Students are responsible for ensuring that they provide a valid mailing address to assure that they receive a Statement of Results. Students who cease attending a course without officially cancellation or after the cancellation deadline will be considered to be enrolled in that course. It will be included in their official Statement of Results.

6.5.3 Transfer of courses:
A student enrolled at Regent-Ghana desiring to earn credits at another institution of higher education and have those credits applied toward a degree at Regent-Ghana must seek the approval of the Registrar and other appropriate University officials. Approval must be obtained prior to taking the particular course(s). A student receiving such approval must have an official transcript submitted to the Academic Office immediately upon completion of the course(s). The appropriate fee will be charged for such services.

6.6 Modules/ Courses:

6.6.1 A Module:

a. A module is a coherent and identifiable unit of learning and teaching with defined learning outcomes and which generates a single mark. Modules provided for undergraduate programmes of study which are available on a full-time basis will be taught within an academic year. Where two modules are linked across adjacent semesters within a single session they will have an integrated assessment which generates a single mark.

b. Module credit values shall be expressed only in credits up to a maximum of 6 credit hours, unless otherwise permitted by the Senate (except in the case of study undertaken as a "year abroad/in industry" which may be defined in terms of a single module of 36 credits).

6.6.2 Module Descriptions and Outlines:
There shall be a module description and outlines for every module approved by the Senate or its delegated authority, which includes the following: School/Department, title and code number of the module, its level and credit 6.6.3 Pre-requisites, Co-requisites and Prohibited Combinations:

a. A pre-requisite is a module for which a student must have obtained credits before undertaking another specified module or modules.

b. A co-requisite is a module, which a student must take in conjunction with another module or modules within a single stage.

c. A prohibited combination is two or more modules which cannot be taken together within the same programme.

6.6.4 Module Registration:
Registration for modules shall be within parameters defined in programme requirements and may be subject to other factors such as the student's prior subject knowledge, or timetabling or resource constraints. It is the responsibility of individual students to ensure that they are correctly registered for modules which meet programme requirements.

6.6.5 Course Cancellation:
Although the University College will endeavour to hold all the courses scheduled, it reserves the right to withdraw any course in which fewer than ten students are registered.

6.6.7 Adding and Dropping Courses:
If a student wants to drop or add a course or if a lecturer recommends a change, the student should confer with an advisor. The last day for dropping courses without a "W" being recorded is at the 36th calendar day of the semester.

6.6.8 Copyright in Modules/Course Lectures:
If a student wishes to tape-record, photograph, video-record or otherwise reproduce lecture presentations, course notes or familiar materials provided by instructors, he or she must obtain the instructor’s written consent beforehand. Otherwise all such reproduction is an infringement of copyright and is absolutely prohibited. In the case of private use by students with disabilities, the instructor’s consent will not be unreasonably withheld.

6.7 Credit Framework:

6.7.1 Credit:
The award of credit certifies that the learning outcomes of the module have been achieved. The credit value indicates the number of study hours (lecturer-student contact time) required to achieve the learning outcomes. One credit represents one hour of lectures. A standard full-time undergraduate programme comprises 32-36 credit hours each academic year.

6.7.2 Credit/No (0) Credit Courses:
a. Certain courses for which the learning experience is based primarily on participation and/or attendance may be offered solely on a Credit/No (0) Credit basis. Such courses are normally assessed on Pass/Fail basis.

b. For courses that are normally given for a grade, the designation Credit may be obtained in the case of credit by examination.

6.7.3 Accreditation of Prior Learning and Prior Experiential Learning (AP(E)L):

a. Students may be admitted to a programme on the basis of credit achieved on another programme or at another institution or through work experience which has been accredited. Credit achieved in this way may, where relevant, contribute towards the achievement of the credit requirements of the programme concerned in accordance with procedures approved by the Senate or its delegated authority.

b. Where a student is permitted to use pre-awarded credit towards a University qualification, satisfactory completion of that qualification will be dependent upon the further achievement of at least one third of the total credits required for the award. The achievement of these credits must be at the same or at a higher academic level than the pre-awarded credits and must include any compulsory dissertation or thesis element stated in the programme requirements.

6.7.3 Work-based Learning:
Programmes may include work-based learning which is assessed and given appropriate credit. This should be specified in the programme requirements and modules approved via the usual module approval mechanisms.

6.8 Credit Requirements:
6.8.1 For all awards the full number of credits must be attempted as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Programme</th>
<th>Credit Hours</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>BBA/BSc/BTh (unless otherwise stated below)</td>
<td>120-128 credit hours</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Post-Diploma (Top-up) Bachelors degree</td>
<td>60-90 credit hours</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

All Bachelors degree programmes should include at least 4 credit hours of independent learning (e.g. dissertation, project work).

6.8.5 Single Honours Degree Programmes:
The credits will be predominantly in the main subject discipline but, unless the Senate agrees otherwise, all programmes must include the opportunity for students to take at least 6 credits hours from outside the main subject.

6.8.6 Joint Honours and Major/Minor degree programmes:
The credits required for Joint Honours and Major/Minor programmes will normally be distributed between the subjects in the following ratios at each level:

| Joint Hons: | 50% each subject (i.e. students must complete 60 credits in total in each of the two subjects) split in equal proportions across the levels. The dissertation or project may be in either subject or both subjects. An example is BSc (Hons) Accounting and Information Systems |

| Major/Minor: | Two thirds (67%) Major; one third (33%) Minor (i.e. students must complete a total of 67 credits in the Major subject and 33 credits in the Minor subject) split in equal proportions across the levels. A dissertation or project should be taken in the major subject. An example is BSc (Hons) Management with Computing. |

6.8.7 Courses of Other Universities (Letters of Permission and Transfer Credit): Students admitted with transfer credit may be limited in the number of courses that they may transfer after admission. Prior to taking courses at another University, students are advised to request a Letter of Permission to confirm acceptability of those courses for transfer credit. Otherwise, students may submit a request for transfer credit after completing courses elsewhere. Permission obtained from an instructor or from a department for programme purposes, however, does not obligate the University to grant transfer credit. There is a GH¢20.00 non-refundable charge for each request. Assessments of transfer credit may take several weeks to process depending on the time of year and the nature of the request. Applicants are responsible for submitting requests well in advance of any deadlines they must meet and for obtaining the appropriate counselling concerning the Letter of Permission and/or Transfer Credit process.

6.9 Level:

6.9.1 All modules must be defined by level and credit value. The level of a module is an indicator of the relative demand, complexity, depth of study and learner autonomy involved in the module. It does not necessarily coincide with the stage or year of the programme in which the module is taken. Levels descriptors shall be approved by the Senate or its delegated authority.

6.9.2 Only one level may be assigned to a module, although there may be occasions when it may be possible for some or all of the content to be delivered in common for modules at different levels. In these instances, the modules will be clearly differentiated by separate learning outcomes and assessment and will be identified by separate module code numbers.

7.0 Assessment, Grading and Progression

7.1 Assessment:

7.1.1 There shall be a formal University Examinations in programmes of study at the end of each semester. The examination in each course shall not be less than two (2) hours duration. In addition, there shall be a system of continuous assessment based on any combination of the following: mid-semester examination, class tests, essays, tutorials, assignments etc.

7.1.2 The purpose of assessment is to measure the achievement of the intended learning outcomes. The form(s) of assessment for any module shall be appropriate for this purpose. The general principles of assessment shall be consistent with University Assessment Protocols and with the Assessment Policy for First Degree and Taught Masters Programmes.
7.1.3 Assessment of Modules:
All modules must be assessed. Linked modules may be assessed by means of combined assessment, e.g. a single examination paper, essay or project. Modules must normally be assessed within the academic year in which they are taken and may be assessed within the semester in which they are taken.

7.1.4 Assessment Load:
The assessment should be appropriate for the learning and teaching outcomes and should not be excessive. Normally, there should be no more than six formal written examinations of three hours’ duration or equivalent for each 36 credit hours of an undergraduate programme.

7.1.5 Marks:

a. A module is passed if its specified learning outcomes have been achieved. The assessment of each module shall generate a single mark between 0 and 100% expressing the extent to which the learning outcomes have been achieved. The pass mark for undergraduate level modules is 50% except that, where required by external bodies, as in the case of programmes of our Partner Universities run in Regent-Ghana, modules may be permitted by the Senate to have a pass mark other than 50%.

b. A Cumulative Weighted Average (CWA)/ a Cumulative Grade Point Average (CGPA) mark shall be required at the end of each semester. Where a student does not maintain the above minimum Cumulative Weighted Average of 50% or a minimum Cumulative Grade Point Average of 1.5 as the case may be, the student shall be put on probation. A final year student who passes in all courses but does not achieve the required CWA mark of 50% or CGPA mark of 1.5 shall be permitted to use his grace period to improve his CWA/CGPA in order to qualify for the award of the certificate/degree for which he/she is studying.

c. Linked modules shall produce a single mark.

d. Marks awarded for each module will be provisional until confirmed by the relevant Board of Examiners. Subject to this provision, students shall be given informal guidance with regard to their academic performance at such times as Schools may determine in accordance with the relevant Codes of Practice.

e. A candidate who fails to attend a required examination without adequate cause or who fails to complete other assessed work by the stated deadline shall be deemed to have failed and shall be awarded a mark of 0% for that examination or assessment.

f. Marks will be expressed as percentages on students' transcripts.

7.1.6 Assessment and Credit:
In order to obtain credit in a module a candidate must have gained at least the specified pass mark for the module and completed any other requirements to the satisfaction of the Board of Examiners.

7.1.7 Compensation:
Credit may only be awarded for successful completion of the stated learning outcomes of the module. Where the positive aspects of the overall performance within the module outweigh the area of failure, ‘compensation’ of a weak achievement by a strong performance elsewhere should only be allowed in relation to assessments within a single module, or between assessments across linked modules which share an integrated assessment, which leads to a single mark.

7.2 Grading system and policy:

7.2.1 Examination in all courses shall be credited by marks and later graded as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Percentage</th>
<th>Letter Grade</th>
<th>Grade Definition</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>70-100 / 80-100*</td>
<td>A</td>
<td>Excellent Strong evidence of original thinking; good organization; capacity to analyse and synthesize; superior grasp of subject matter with sound critical evaluations; evidence of extensive knowledge base.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>60-69.99 / 70 – 79.99*</td>
<td>B</td>
<td>Very Good Evidence of grasp of subject matter, some evidence of critical capacity and analytic ability; reasonable understanding of relevant issues; evidence of familiarity with literature.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>50-59.99 / 60.69.99*</td>
<td>C</td>
<td>Good Student who is profiting from his/her university experience; understanding of the subject matter; ability to develop solutions to simple problems in the material.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>40-49.99 / 50.59.99*</td>
<td>D</td>
<td>Pass Some evidence of familiarity with subject matter and some evidence that critical and analytic skills have been developed.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>0-39 / 0-49*</td>
<td>F</td>
<td>Fail Little evidence of even superficial understanding of subject matter; weakness in critical and analytic skills; with limited or irrelevant use of literature.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

(*)Asterisked percentages are meant for programmes pursued under the UEW and TTS Affiliation Agreements.

7.2.2 Variations to the above may occur depending on what obtains in the affiliate awarding institution. In such cases the student will be given enough advance information.

7.2.3 Credits – This is the weight assigned to each course. These credits are usually the number of hours the classes meet a week.
7.2.4 Weighted Point (WP) – Defined as the total points earned per course, it is a multiplication of the score obtained by the credits for the course.

7.2.5 Grade Point (GP) Defined as the total points earned per course, it is a division of the score obtained by the credits for the course.

7.2.6 Total Credits (TCR) – The sum of all credits earned for the semester.

7.2.7 Weighted Point Average (WPA) - Total Weighted Points divided by the Total Credits earned. WPA is the semester’s weighted average score. $\frac{TWP}{TCR}$

7.2.8 Grade Point Average (GPA) - calculated by taking the number of grade points a student earned in a given semester divided by the total number of credits taken.

7.2.9 Cumulative Grade Point (CGP) – sum of all points earned for the programme of study.

7.2.10 Cumulative Grade point Average (CGPA) – The average calculated by dividing the cumulative Grade Points by the cumulative Credits earned since enrolment into the programme of study.

7.2.11 Cumulative Credits (CCR) - Sum of all credits earned for the programme of study. $\sum TCR$

7.2.12 Cumulative Weighted Points (CWP) - Sum of all points earned for the programme of study. $\sum TWP$

7.2.13 Cumulative Weighted Point Average (CWPA) - The average calculated by dividing the cumulative weighted points (CWP) by the cumulative credits earned (CCR) since enrolment into the programme of study. $\frac{CWP}{CCR}$

7.2.14 Course Grade (CG) - Is the final letter grade corresponding to cumulative weighted average score obtained in the programme of study as explained in the grade definition in the table above.

7.3 Definition of Grades

7.3.1 Pass Grades: Grades A to D

7.3.2 Failure Grades: Grades F, Z, X

7.3.3 Absent: A grade X (for absent without reason) shall be awarded at the end of a semester to any student who is absent for a particular examination.

7.3.3 Continuing: A grade Y (for continuing) shall be awarded at the end of a semester to any student who is taking a course, which continues into the next semester.

7.3.4 Non - Completion of Course: A grade I (for incomplete) shall be awarded to a student who is unable to complete a course for reasons adjudged by the Faculty/School Board as satisfactory. Such a student shall be expected to complete the course the very next time the course is available.

7.3.5 Disqualification: A grade Z which denotes disqualification from an examination as a result of an examination malpractice or offence shall be awarded whenever it has been established that a student had attempted to gain an unfair advantage in an examination. Such a candidate may be debarred from taking the University College Examination for a stated period. A grade Z may be awarded only by the School/Faculty Board.

7.3.6 Requirements. Only the grades A, B, C, D and F (and the Courses in which a 0 Credit or Pass grade is received will be used in fulfilling graduation designations IX and NX under conditions described above) are used in calculating resident grade averages.

7.4 Auditing Courses:
A student may register to audit any course upon approval of the HOD. An auditor (hearer) will not be held responsible for assignment or examination; however he/she is expected to attend class on a regular basis. The student’s transcript will carry a grade of AU. No credit is received for auditing a course. The appropriate fees (50% of normal tuition fees) must be paid before attending lectures.

7.5 Repeated Courses:
A student may repeat for a higher grade any course in which an F was earned. Only the highest grade earned will count in the WPA/GPA. A course in which a B, C or D is earned may not be retaken in order to achieve a higher grade. If a course is repeated, all grades obtained in that course remain on the student’s transcript.

7.6 Grade Re-evaluation:
A student who has reasons, which can be substantiated to request a grade change, must meet with the Lecturer (or the appropriate Departmental Head if the Lecturer is no longer on campus) and request a re-evaluation of his/her performance in the class. If the Head is the lecturer whose mark or grade the student want changed, the case should be referred to a senior lecturer in the department or external examiner. If it is determined that a change of grade is justified, the Lecturer will fill out a grade change form and submit it to the Departmental Head for action. It is then forwarded to the Dean of the appropriate School. It must have the Dean’s approval prior to it being sent to the Examinations Unit.

7.7 Semester Examinations & Assessment of Courses:

7.7.1 Assessment of student’s performance shall be by a combination of continuous assessment and end-of-semester examinations. The weighting for the two modes of assessments are as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Assessment Type</th>
<th>Weighting</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Continuous Assessment</td>
<td>30% or 40% depending on the</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>programme of study</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>End-of-semester Examination</td>
<td>60% or 70% depending on the</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>programme of study</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
7.7.2 Continuous assessment should comprise: quizzes, essays, short tests, assignments and mid-semester examinations. There are at least two examinations per semester: mid-semester and end of semester examinations. Examinations should be taken only at the appointed time. Failing to take an examination will result in a grade of ‘F’ for that examination.

7.7.3 In case of an emergency, advance permission must be obtained from the lecturer to take the examination at a different time or a student may request an ‘incomplete grade’. He/she will then have two semesters in which to complete the work and replace the ‘Incomplete’ with a letter grade. If the work is not completed within this time, the grade will become ‘F’.

7.7.4 Each course, with the exception of a Project work, shall normally be completed in one semester.

7.7.5 The ratio of Semester work to examination mark will be the same for all courses that have final examinations. The relative value of each part of a written examination must be indicated on the question paper.

7.7.6 Final examinations are held at the end of each semester. Students taking courses during the day may be required to write either evening examinations or examinations during the day, and students taking evening courses may be required to write examinations in the evening. Examinations may be held on Saturdays. Students who make personal commitments during the examination period do so at their own risk. No special consideration is given and no special arrangements are made in the event of conflicts.

7.7.7 Students who are unable to write their examinations, due to illness, domestic affliction, etc., should contact their HOD. Students who have two final examination papers at the same time or three consecutive final examination papers should contact the HOD well before the examination period begins. 12.3.1 All students who fail a module/course shall have one opportunity to redeem the failure either by re-assessment or by repeating. Such opportunity shall be provided and taken by the next resit examinations. If for a tangible reason (health/bereavement of close family members/work related absence from the city or country), a student is not able to write the examination(s), he/she will have to submit a letter of permission to the Registrar. Such student will be required to sit in class the next semester the course is being offered. All outstanding courses over a year, shall be awarded 0.

12.3.2 For re-assessment, a student is required to complete such further assessments specified by the Faculty Board as necessary to demonstrate achievement of the stated learning outcomes at the next available opportunity. This will normally be by, or at the time, of supplementary examinations.

12.3.3 A student who is required to repeat a module is required to attend all teaching sessions and to complete all the assessment requirements associated with the module in order to achieve the stated learning outcomes. Repeat students should normally repeat the module within one year of the initial failure.

12.3.4 In some modules the nature of the module will be such that redeeming of failure can only be by means of a repeat (e.g. laboratory-based modules). Such modules should be designated “Repeat” only in module descriptions.

In such cases, the student shall be required to attend the module in full and complete all the assessments.

12.3.8 Students may not normally be re-assessed in or repeat any module for which they have obtained credit, except for students in exceptional personal difficulties who for sound educational reasons may be allowed to repeat modules for which they have already obtained credit.
12.3.9 Following successful re-assessment of a failed module, the mark used for the purpose of arriving at decisions on progress or the final degree classification will be the minimum pass mark for the module. The mark actually achieved in any re-assessment will however be recorded on the student's transcript.

12.3.10 Following unsuccessful re-assessment of a failed module, the mark used for arriving at decisions on progress or the final degree classification shall be the higher of the two fail marks achieved, at initial assessment and at re-assessment.

12.3.11 No opportunity is normally provided to redeem failure in a module in the final stage of a classified honours degree programme: the fail mark is taken into account in determination of the award. Unless specified otherwise in programme requirements and approved by the Senate or delegated authority, the only exceptions to this will be Health Sciences and Architecture programmes.

12.4 Examination Malpractices:
Examination offences shall include the following:

12.4.1 The invigilator or any examiner shall report to the Academic Office as soon as practicable, any instance of a breach of examination regulations.

12.4.2 The Disciplinary Sub-Committee in charge of examination malpractices shall review all reports received in connection with an examination malpractice or an offence and impose appropriate sanctions.

12.4.3 Sanctions for examination malpractices shall include barring candidates from taking the University examination for a stated period, suspension or expulsion from the University.

12.4.4 Any Invigilator/teacher/staff of the University who aids and abets in examination malpractice shall be dismissed after the disciplinary committee has proved their guilt.

12.5 Rules for the Conduct of Examinations:

12.5.1 No person will be allowed into an examination room during an examination except the candidates concerned and those supervising the examination.

12.5.2 Candidates must appear at the examination room at least twenty minutes before the commencement of the examination.

12.5.3 Candidates shall bring their student photo identification cards and place them in a conspicuous place on their desks.

12.5.4 Bags and books are to be deposited in areas designated by the Chief Presiding Officer and are not to be taken to the examination desk or table. Students may place their purses on the floor under their chairs.

12.5.5 The Chief Presiding Officer has authority to assign seats to candidates.

12.5.6 Candidates shall not communicate with one another in any manner whatsoever during the examination.
12.5.7 No materials or electronic devices shall be brought into the room or used at an examination except those authorized by the Chief Presiding Officer or Examiner. Unauthorized materials include, but are not limited to: books, class notes, or aid sheets. Unauthorized electronic devices include, but are not limited to: cellular telephones, laptop computers, programmable calculators, MP3 players (such as an iPod), Personal Digital Assistants (“PDA” such as Palm Pilot or Blackberry), pagers, electronic dictionaries, Compact Disc Players, and Mini Disc Players.

12.5.8 Candidates who bring any unauthorized materials or electronic devices into an examination room or who assist or obtain assistance from other candidates or from any unauthorized source are liable to penalties under the Code of Behaviour on Academic Matters, including the loss of academic credit and expulsion.

12.5.9 In general, candidates will not be permitted to enter an examination room later than fifteen minutes after the commencement of the examination, or to leave except under supervision until at least half an hour after the examination has commenced.

12.5.10 Candidates shall remain seated at their desks during the final ten minutes of each examination.

12.5.11 At the conclusion of an examination, all writing shall cease. The Chief Presiding Officer may seize the papers of candidates who fail to observe this requirement and a penalty may be imposed at the discretion of the instructor.

12.5.12 Examination books and other material issued for the examination shall not be removed from the examination room except by the authority of the Chief Presiding Officer.

12.6 Academic integrity:

12.6.1 Students at Regent University College of Science and Technology are expected to be uncompromising in integrity and honest in all academic affairs. Lack of academic integrity can occur in any of the following three situations:

   a. Plagiarism – the act of literary theft whereby the other person’s work is presented, as the writer’s own. The offence of plagiarism may be committed in the following manner; when excerpts of thoughts and writings of others are used in essays. When that is done, the author must be acknowledged through footnotes or other acceptable practices.

   b. Cheating in an examination – this will automatically attract a failing grade “F” for the course.

   c. Submitting false records or information at the time of admission to the University – this would attract the appropriate penalty of expulsion from the University. Where a degree has already been awarded, the degree shall be withdrawn and the criminal aspect referred to the appropriate state authority.

12.6.5 Elaborate information relating to Academic misconduct is found in the University Policy on Academic Misconduct Handbook.
13.0 Appeals and Petitions

13.1 Students are responsible for observing sessional dates, course prerequisites, and exclusion, satisfying the degree requirements and following the rules and regulations in the Calendar and the Registration Handbook and Timetable; failure to inform themselves of the preceding information may result in academic and/or financial penalties. Students should always consult their HODs immediately for guidance if anything happens that interferes with continuing or completing their courses or that appears to be contrary to rules, regulations and deadlines.

13.2 Departmental Appeals:
Issues arising within a course that concern the pedagogical relationship of the lecturer and the student, such as the organization of a course, grading practices, or conduct of instructors, fall within the authority of the department or college sponsoring the course. Students are encouraged to discuss any issues regarding the academic aspects of a course with the lecturer. It is recommended that if appropriate an issue should be documented in writing. The successive stages of appeal after the course lecturer are as follows: the Undergraduate Secretary; the Chair of the Department or the Programme Leader; then the Dean of the School. An appeal must have been reviewed at the departmental level before referral to the Dean; appeals to the Dean MUST be in writing.

13.3 Petitions to the School:

13.3.1 Issues relating to degree requirements and administrative regulations may be petitioned to the School within specific time limitations. The School considers petitions to have regulations waived or varied, if a student presents compelling reasons; however, students must convince the School that they have acted responsibly and with good judgment in observing School regulations. The Committee on Standing routinely denies petitions that in its view do not present a valid reason for an exemption from the regulations. Students are encouraged to seek counseling and, if necessary, to initiate a petition through the office of their HOD.

13.3.2 Petitions must:
   a. State the student’s request;
   b. The reasons for the request in a clear and concise manner; and
   c. Be accompanied by relevant supporting documentation.

13.3.3 The petition is considered in confidence by the Committee on Standing, which is charged with interpreting and administering the regulations of the School. The Committee has the authority to grant exceptions and to attach conditions to its decisions.

13.3.4 It is the responsibility of the student to provide an accurate address to which a petition decision may be sent. Non-receipt of a decision due to postal error or incorrect address is not grounds for reconsideration.

13.4 Deadlines to File Petitions:

13.4.1 Semester Work: The last day of the examination period.
13.4.2 Examinations: Within one week of the end of the examination period; end of first week of classes in January for the December examination period.

13.4.3 Withdrawal
   a. October Session Courses: the following 15 November
   b. January Session Courses: the following 28/29 February

13.4.4 All supporting documentation must be submitted within three weeks of the date of initiating the petition. Late petitions and petitions with late documentation will not be considered.

13.5 Documentation in Support of Petitions:
The School seeks documentation that provides pertinent evidence for decisions determining whether or not an exception should be made to regulations that are designed to ensure equitable treatment for all students.

13.6 Petitions Regarding Term Work:

13.6.1 Matters concerning term work normally fall within the authority of the lecturer. Students unable to comply with given deadlines must contact their lecturer prior to the deadline if an extension to the deadline is requested. All term work must be submitted by the last day of classes, unless an earlier date has been specified.

13.6.2 Lecturers may grant extensions beyond their own deadlines or beyond the last day of classes up to the last day of the examination period provided that a student presents reasons of illness, etc., with appropriate documentation.

13.6.3 Extensions beyond the last day of the examination period interfere with the University’s schedule for the submission of final grades and must therefore be approved by petition. These petitions for an extension of time for term work must be initiated by the last day of the relevant examination period. Late requests will not be accepted. Students must file the petition after consultation with the Lecturer regarding a suitable extension date.

13.6.4 The Committee on Standing consults the department concerned for information about the status of the course work, and the steps, if any, that must be taken to complete the course.

13.6.5 Students seeking an extension of time for term work are expected to continue their course work while they await a decision. They will not be granted additional time after the petition decision has been issued.

13.7 Petitions Regarding Examinations:

13.7.1 Students are expected to write examinations as scheduled. Only in cases of documented debilitating illness or legitimate conflict should a student request a deferral of a final examination. Students who are too ill and/or incapacitated at the time of the examinations should petition to defer the examination they are unable to attend due to their medical condition. Petitions based on travel, employment, or personal plans will not be considered.
13.7.2 A deferred special examination at a subsequent examination period or the regular offering of the examination when next taught may be granted at the discretion of the School. Satisfactory written evidence must be provided to corroborate the illness. Students with chronic illnesses must provide medical documentation for the specific date on which the illness was acute. Students must submit a petition within one week of the end of the examination period through the HOD.

13.7.3 There is a fee of GH¢20.00 per deferred examination. In the petition decision students are notified of the examination period in which the deferred examination will take place, and if the examination will be a regular or special examination. They must register and pay the fee by a given deadline, in order that arrangements can be made, an examination requested, etc. The School will notify those who do not register by the deadline that they have lost their privilege of a deferred examination and will revert the grade to one that includes a “0” for the final examination. No further consideration will be given. The University sends written notification to the students who have registered for deferred examinations of the specific date (within the already specified examination period), time and location of a deferred examination, as well as the reserved seating (if a special examination).

13.7.4 Letters are mailed as early as possible, but due to the constraints of scheduling with the regular examinations, the mailing will occur five working days after the release of the regular August examination schedule, and ten working days after the release of the April/May and December examination schedules. Those who do not respond lose the privilege of a deferred examination and their grade reverts to one that includes a “0” for the final examination.

13.7.5 Students who must write a deferred examination in a course that serves as a prerequisite for subsequent courses may enroll in those courses with the approval of the department concerned and provided that the semester mark in the prerequisite (deferred) course is at least 60%.

13.7.6 Students who are granted Deferred Standing (i.e., the notation of “DS”, for an extension of time for semester/trimester work or for a deferred examination) and who have earned an Average of less than ‘D’, will not be permitted to enroll in further courses until the outstanding course work has been completed and final cumulative and sessional WPAs/GPAs and status for the session have been assessed.

13.7.8 If students decide to write an examination which does not go well, they MAY NOT PETITION FOR A REWRITE. Post hoc arguments claiming an inability to function at full potential or to exhibit full knowledge of the subject matter will not be accepted as grounds for consideration of a petition concerning performance on an examination. Furthermore, students who choose to write an examination against medical recommendation should do so knowing that they will not be given consideration after the examination has been written. Students must not only take responsibility for making appropriate judgments about their fitness to attend examinations, but also must accept the outcome of their choices.

13.7.9 Students who miss a deferred examination receive a grade of “0” for the examination in the calculation of the final grade. If the School accepts the student’s reasons for missing a deferred examination as legitimate, a further deferred examination may be permitted. Students are charged a further fee for each subsequent deferred examination. Note that in such situations of further deferrals the Committee on Standing regularly prohibits registration in further sessions until the outstanding course work has been completed.

13.8 Appeals against Petition Decisions:

Appeals against petition decisions progress as follows:

13.8.1 First petition must be to the Committee on Standing by appropriate deadline submitted through the Academic Secretary.

13.8.2 Appeal to the Committee on Standing within ninety days of the first decision; second petition must be submitted through the Academic Secretary

13.8.3 Appeal to the Academic Appeals Committee within ninety days of the second decision; written request for a hearing must be submitted through the Academic Secretary

13.8.4 Appeal to the Academic Appeals Committee of Senate within ninety days of the decision of the Academic Appeals Committee.

13.9 Reassessment of Marks:

13.9.1 Re-read of Final Examination:

a. If a student believes that a final examination has been incorrectly marked in its substance, he/she may request a “re-read.”

b. The student must first purchase a photocopy of the final examination from the Office of the Academic Secretary, for a fee of GH¢10.00 per course. The student must then fill out a “Request for Re-read of Final Examination” form, which is available at the Office of the Academic Secretary. The student must demonstrate that his/her answers are substantially correct by citing specific instances of disagreement, supported by such documentary evidence as course handouts, textbooks, lecture notes, etc. The student must do more than simply assert that “I disagree with the marking,” or that “I believe I deserve more marks.”

c. The Department concerned will re-read the examination in the light of the arguments presented. There is a GH¢10.00 fee for this procedure, which is in addition to the fee of GH¢100,000 charged for the photocopy of the final examination. The fee must be submitted, with the completed form, to the Accounts Department within six months of the final examination period.

d. If the mark is changed as a result of this review both the photocopy and re-read fees will be refunded. It should be noted that when a course is failed, the examination must be re-read before the mark is reported.

13.9.2 Re-check of Course Mark:
a. If a student believes that there has been an arithmetical error in calculating the course mark, he/she may request a “re-check.” This can be done with or without purchasing a photocopy of the final examination.

b. The student must fill out a “Request for Recheck of Course Mark” form, which is available at the HOD. The Department concerned will check that all answers have been marked, and that the marks have been added correctly; the examination will not be re-read. The Department will also check that all term work marks have been correctly calculated.

c. There is no charge for this procedure.

d. The completed form must be submitted to the HOD within six months of the final examination period. If the mark is changed as a result of this review, the photocopy fee will be refunded.

e. A re-read or re-check may result in a raised mark, a lowered mark, or no change.

13.9.2 Deadlines for requesting a photocopy of a final examination, a re-read or a re-check:

   a. February examinations: the following August 31
   b. April/May examinations: the following November 15
   c. June examinations: the following January 15
   d. August examinations: the following February 28/29
   e. December examinations: the following June 30

14.0 University Grading Practices Policy

14.1 Purpose:
   The purpose of the University Grading Practices Policy is to ensure:

14.1.1 That grading practices throughout the University reflect appropriate academic standards

14.1.2 That the evaluation of student performance is made in a fair and objective manner against these academic standards

14.1.3 That the academic standing of every student can be accurately assessed even when courses have been taken in different departments of the University and evaluated according to different grade scales.

14.2 Application of Policy:
   The Policy applies to all individuals and committees taking part in the evaluation of student performance in degree, diploma, and certificate credit courses.

14.3 Amendment to Policy:
   Amendments to the Policy shall be recommended to the Senate. Changes to the departmental regulations on grading practices shall be forwarded to the Committee on Academic Policy and Programmes.
14.4 Distribution of Policy:
A copy of the Grading Practices Policy as well as the description of the grade scales shall be published in the Calendar of the department. Similarly a copy shall be given to all students upon initial registration and to all instructors and others, including teaching assistants, involved in the evaluation of student performance. The Policy is part of the Assessment Policy of the University.

15.0 Discipline: Code of Behaviour on Academic Matters

15.1 The Senate has approved a Code of Behaviour, which sets out clearly the standard of conduct in academic matters expected of members of the University community. The Code is enforced by the Provost and the Disciplinary Tribunal. Below are extracts from the Code, covering offences, sanctions and procedures as they apply to students. The full text is available from the office of the VPAA, the Offices of the Deans, and the Academic Office.

15.2 The University and its members have a responsibility to ensure that a climate that might encourage, or conditions that might enable, cheating, misrepresentation or unfairness not be tolerated. To this end all must acknowledge that seeking credit or other advantages by fraud or misrepresentation, or seeking to disadvantage others by disruptive behaviour is unacceptable, as is any dishonesty or unfairness in dealing with the work or record of a student.

15.3 Wherever in the Code an offence is described as depending on “knowing”, the offence shall likewise be deemed to have been committed if the person ought reasonably to have known.

15.4 Offences

15.4.1 It shall be an offence for a student knowingly:

a. To forge or in any other way alter or falsify any document or evidence required for admission to the University, or to utter, circulate or make use of any such forged, altered or falsified document, whether the record be in print or electronic form.

b. To use or possess an unauthorized aid or aids or obtain unauthorized assistance in any academic examination or term test or in connection with any other form of academic work.

c. To impersonate another person, or to have another person impersonate, at any academic examination or term test or in connection with any other form of academic work.

d. To represent as one’s own any idea or expression of an idea or work of another in any academic examination or term test or in connection with any other form of academic work, i.e. to commit plagiarism.

e. To submit, without the knowledge and approval of the instructor to whom it is submitted, any academic work for which credit has previously been obtained or is being sought in another course or programme of study in the University or elsewhere.
f. To submit for credit any academic work containing a purported statement of fact or reference to a source which has been concocted.

15.4.2 It shall be an offence for a School member knowingly:

a. To approve any of the previously described offences

b. To evaluate an application for admission or transfer to a course or programme of study by other than duly established and published criteria

c. To evaluate academic work by a student by reference to any criterion that does not relate to its merit, to the time within which it is to be submitted or to the manner in which it is to be performed.

15.4.3 It shall be an offence for a School member and student alike knowingly, to engage in any form of cheating, academic dishonesty or misconduct, fraud or misrepresentation not herein otherwise described, in order to obtain academic credit or other academic advantage of any kind.

15.4.4 A graduate of the University may be charged with any of the above offences committed intentionally while he or she was an active student, when, in the opinion of the Senate, the offence, if detected, would have resulted in a sanction sufficiently severe that the degree would not have been granted at the time it was.

15.5 Parties to Offences

15.5.1 Every member is a party to an offence under this Code who knowingly

a. Actually commits it;
b. Does or omits to do anything for the purpose of aiding or assisting another member to commit the offence
c. Does or omits to do anything for the purpose of aiding or assisting any other person who, if that person were a member, would have committed the offence
d. Abets, counsels, procures or conspires with another member to commit or be a party to an offence or
e. Abets, counsels, procures or conspires with any other person who, if that person were a member, would have committed or have been a party to the offence.

15.5.2 Every party to an offence under this Code is liable upon admission of the commission thereof, or upon conviction, as the case may be, to the sanctions applicable to that offence.

15.5.3 Every member who, having an intent to commit an offence under this Code, does or omits to do anything for the purpose of carrying out that intention (other than mere preparation to commit the offence) is guilty of an attempt to commit the offence and liable upon conviction to the same sanctions as if he or she had committed the offence.
15.5.4 When a group is found guilty of an offence under this Code, every officer, director or agent of the group, being a member of the University, who directed, authorized or participated in the commission of the offence is a party to and guilty of the offence and is liable upon conviction to the sanctions provided for the offence.

15.6 Departmental Procedures:

15.6.1 Where a student commits an offence, the School in which the student is registered has responsibility over the student in the matter.

15.6.2 Where lecturer has reasonable grounds to believe that an academic offence has been committed by a student, the instructor shall so inform the student immediately after learning of the act or conduct complained of, giving reasons, and invite the student to discuss the matter. Nothing the student says in such a discussion may be used or receivable in evidence against the student.

15.6.3 If after such discussion, the lecturer is satisfied that no academic offence has been committed, he or she shall so inform the student and no further action shall be taken in the matter by the lecturer, unless fresh evidence comes to the attention of the instructor, in which case he or she may again proceed.

15.6.4 If after such discussion, the instructor believes that an academic offence has been committed by the student, or if the student fails or neglects to respond to the invitation for discussion, the lecturer shall make a report of the matter to the department chair or through the department chair to the dean.

15.6.5 When the dean or the department chair, as the case may be, has been so informed, he or she shall notify the student in writing accordingly, provide him or her with a copy of the Code, and subsequently afford the student an opportunity for discussion of the matter. In the case of the dean being informed, the chair of the department and the lecturer shall be invited by the dean to be present at the meeting with the student. The dean shall conduct the interview.

15.6.6 Before proceeding with the meeting, the dean shall inform the student that he or she is entitled to seek advice, or to be accompanied by counsel at the meeting, before making, and is not obliged to make, any statement or admission, but shall warn that if he or she makes any statement or admission in the meeting, it may be used or receivable in evidence against the student in the hearing of any charge with respect to the offence or alleged offence in question. The dean shall also advise the student, without further comment or discussion, of the sanctions that may be imposed, and that the dean is not obliged to impose a sanction but may instead request that the Provost laid a charge against the student. Where such advice and warning have been given, the statements and admissions made in such a meeting, if any, may be used or received in evidence against the student in any such hearing.

15.6.7 If the dean, on the advice of the department chair and the instructor, or if the department chair, on the advice of the Lecturer, subsequently decides that no academic offence has been committed and that no further action in the matter is required, the student shall be so informed in writing and the student’s work shall be accepted for normal evaluation or, if the student was prevented from withdrawing from the course by the withdrawal date, he or she shall be allowed to do so. Thereafter, the matter shall not be introduced into evidence at a Tribunal hearing for another offence.

15.6.8 If the student admits the alleged offence, the dean or the department chair may either impose the sanction that he or she considers appropriate or refer the matter to the dean or VPAA, as the case may be, and in either event shall inform the student in writing accordingly. No further action in the matter shall be taken by the Lecturer, the department chair or the dean if the dean imposes a sanction.

15.6.9 If the student is dissatisfied with a sanction imposed by the department chair or the dean, as the case may be, the student may refer the matter to the dean or Provost, as the case may be, for consideration.

15.6.10 If the student does not admit the alleged offence, the dean may, after consultation with the Lecturer and the department chair, request that the Provost lay a charge against the student. If the Provost agrees to lay a charge, the case shall then proceed to the Trial Division of the Tribunal.

15.6.11 Normally, decanal procedures will not be examined in a hearing before the Tribunal. A failure to carry out the procedures referred to in this Section, or any defect or irregularity in such procedures, shall not invalidate any subsequent proceedings of or before the Tribunal, unless the chair of the hearing considers that such failure, defect or irregularity resulted in a substantial wrong, detriment or prejudice to the accused. The chair will determine at the opening of the hearing whether there is going to be any objection to defect, failure or irregularity.

15.6.12 No degree, diploma or certificate of the University shall be conferred or awarded, nor shall a student be allowed to withdraw from a course from the time of the alleged offence until the final disposition of the accusation. However, a student shall be permitted to use University facilities while a decision is pending, unless there are valid reasons for the dean to bar him or her from a facility. When or at any time after an accusation has been reported to the dean, he or she may cause a notation to be recorded on the student’s academic record and transcript in a course and/or the student’s academic status is under review. A student upon whom a sanction has been imposed by the dean or the department chair or who has been convicted by the Tribunal shall not be allowed to withdraw from a course so as to avoid the sanction imposed.

15.6.13 A record of cases disposed of and of the sanctions imposed shall be kept in the academic unit concerned and may be referred to by the dean in connection with a decision to prosecute, or by the prosecution in making representations as to the sanction or sanctions to be imposed by the Tribunal, for any subsequent offence committed by the student. Information on such cases shall be available to other academic units upon request and such cases shall be reported by the dean to the Secretary of the Tribunal for use in the VPAA’s annual report to the Senate. The dean may contact the Secretary of the Tribunal for advice or for information on cases disposed of.

15.6.14 Where a proctor or invigilator, who is not a School member, has reason to believe that an academic offence has been committed by a student at an examination or test, the proctor or invigilator shall so inform the student’s dean or department chair, as the case may be, who shall proceed as if he or she were an Lecturer, by analogy to the other provisions of this section.

15.7 Departmental Sanctions:

15.7.1 In an assignment worth 10 percent or less of the final grade, the department chair may handle the matter if:
   a. The student admits guilt;
   b. The assignment of a penalty is limited to at most a mark of zero for the piece of work;
   c. The student does not admit guilt, or if the department chair chooses, the matter shall be brought before the dean.

15.7.2. One or more of the following sanctions may be imposed by the dean where a student admits to the commission of an offence:
   a. an oral and/or written reprimand
   b. an oral and/or written reprimand and, with the permission of the instructor, the re-submission of the piece of academic work, in respect of which the offence was committed, for evaluation. Such a sanction shall be imposed only for minor offences and where the student has committed no previous offence
   c. assignment of a grade of zero or a failure for the piece of academic work in respect of which the offence was committed
   d. assignment of a penalty in the form of a reduction of the final grade in the course in respect of which the offence was committed
   e. denial of privileges to use any facility of the University, including library and computer facilities
   f. a monetary fine to cover the costs of replacing damaged property or misused supplies in respect of which the offence was committed
   g. assignment of a grade of zero or a failure for the course in respect of which the offence was committed
   h. Suspension from attendance in a course or courses, a programme, an academic division or unit, or the University for a period of not more than twelve months. Where a student has not completed a course or courses in respect of which an offence has not been committed, withdrawal from the course or courses without academic penalty shall be allowed.

15.7.3 The dean shall have the power to record any sanction imposed on the student’s academic record and transcript for such length of time as he or she considers appropriate. However, the sanctions of suspension or a notation specifying academic misconduct as the reason for a grade of zero for a course shall normally be recorded for a period of five years.

15.7.4 The Provost shall, from time to time, indicate appropriate sanctions for certain offences. These guidelines shall be sent for information to the Senate.
16.0 Conduct: Code of Student Conduct

16.1 Summary of Code of Student Conduct:

16.1.1 Non-academic offences are defined in the University’s Code of Student Conduct (2006), the full text of which may be obtained from the Office of the Vice-President for Academic Affairs. A summary of the Code is provided below.

16.1.2 Extracts from the Code are printed here in ordinary type, and additional comments etc., are in italics. References in square brackets are to original section numbering in the Code.

16.2 Offences:

16.2.1 The following offences constitute conduct that shall be deemed to be offences under this Code, when committed by a student of the Regent Ghana, provided that such conduct:

   a. Has not been dealt with as failure to meet standards of professional conduct as required by a School;

   b. is not specifically assigned to the jurisdiction of the University Tribunal, as in the case of offences described in the Code of Behaviour on Academic Matters, or to another disciplinary body within the Regent Ghana, as in the case of sexual harassment as described in the Policy and Procedures: Sexual Harassment; or to a divisional disciplinary body, such as a residence council or a recreational athletics disciplinary body; or is covered under these policies but which is deemed by the head of the division to be more appropriately handled by the Code of Student Conduct;

   c. Except as otherwise provided herein, occurs on premises of the Regent Ghana or elsewhere in the course of activities sponsored by the Regent Ghana or by any of its divisions;

   d. Has not been dealt with under provisions for the discipline of students with respect to University offices and services whose procedures apply to students in several academic divisions, such as University residences, libraries or athletic and recreational facilities.

16.2.2 Offences against Persons:

   a. No person shall assault another person sexually or threaten any other person with sexual assault.

   b. No person shall otherwise assault another person, threaten any other person with bodily harm, or knowingly cause any other person to fear bodily harm.

   c. No person shall knowingly create a condition that unnecessarily endangers the health or safety of other persons.
d. No person shall threaten any other person with damage to such person’s property, or knowingly cause any other person to fear damage to her or his property.

e. No person shall engage in a course of vexatious conduct that is directed at one or more specific individuals, and that is based on the race, place of origin, ethnic origin, citizenship, sex, sexual orientation, creed, age, marital status, family status, handicap, receipt of public assistance or record of offences of that individual or those individuals, and that is known to be unwelcome, and that exceeds the bounds of freedom of expression or academic freedom as these are understood in University policies and accepted practices, including but not restricted to, those explicitly adopted.

16.2.3 Vexatious conduct that is based on sex or sexual orientation is considered an offence under the University’s Policy and Procedures: Sexual Harassment. If the Sexual Harassment Officer believes, after consultation with relevant parties, that a complaint based on sex or sexual orientation would be better handled under the Code of Student Conduct, the Officer may refer the matter to the appropriate head of division.

16.2.4 No person shall, by engaging in the conduct described in subsection (ii) below, whether on the premises of the University or away from the premises of the University, cause another person or persons to fear for their safety or the safety of another person known to them while on the premises of the Regent-Ghana or in the course of activities sponsored by the Regent-Ghana or by any of its divisions, or cause another person or persons to be impeded in exercising the freedom to participate reasonably in the programmes of the University and in activities in or on the University premises, knowing that their conduct will cause such fear, or recklessly as to whether their conduct causes such fear.

Students who like playing music loudly should use headphones. Members who contravene this rule will be required to surrender their equipment or instrument. Request for quiet at any time must be upheld. No noise must be audible during lecture hours.

b. The University’s Hearing Officers shall be available to the divisions, at the discretion of the head of the division, if that is considered appropriate or preferable for any reason.

c. Each division shall appoint a Hearing Officer, who may be a student, staff or School member from that division.

d. Whether the incident is investigated locally or centrally, every effort shall be made to conclude the case through to delivery of a final decision within the University within one year from the alleged incident or misconduct.

e. For purposes of confidential and central record keeping, a one-page summary of the outcome of all investigations, whether or not they have proceeded to a Hearing, shall be copied to the Judicial Affairs Committee Chair, also a member of the University Council.

f. Whenever possible and appropriate, informal resolution and mediation shall be used to resolve issues of individual behaviour before resort is made to formal disciplinarily procedures.

16.3.2. Specific:

a. A Hearing Officer shall be appointed for a term of up to three years by the principal, dean or director (hereinafter called "head") of each School, college or school in which students are registered (hereinafter called "division"), after consultation with the elected student leader or leaders of the division, to investigate complaints made against student members of that division. Hearing Officers shall hold office until their successors are appointed.

b. A Hearing Officer shall be appointed for a term of up to three years by the council of each division to decide on complaints under this Code made against student members of that division. Hearing Officers shall hold office until their successors are appointed.

c. If the Hearing Officer is unable to conduct a hearing, or where the head of the division believes on reasonable grounds that the appointed officer is inappropriate to conduct the particular investigation or chair a particular hearing, then the head of the division shall seek an appointment from the central pool for that particular case. If the head of the division intends to request either suspension from registration or expulsion from the University as a sanction in a particular case, or if the case appears to the head of the division to require a Hearing Officer with legal qualifications, then the Senior Chair of the University Tribunal may, on the application of the head of the division, appoint a legally qualified person as Hearing Officer for that particular case.

d. Where the head of the division has reason to believe that a non-academic offence as defined in this Code may have been committed by a student member or members of the division, the Investigating Officer will conduct an investigation into the case. After having completed the investigation, the Hearing Officer shall report on the investigation to the head of the division. If the head of the division concludes, on the basis of this report, that the student or students may have committed an offence under the Code of Student Conduct, the head of the division shall have the discretion to request that a hearing take place to determine whether the student or students have committed the offence alleged.

e. The hearing will be chaired by the Hearing Officer. The case will be presented by an investigating officer, who may be assisted and represented by legal counsel. If the right to a hearing is waived, or after a hearing, the Hearing Officer will rule on whether the student or students have committed the offence alleged and may impose one or more sanctions as listed below. The accused student or students may be assisted and represented by another person, who may be a legal counsel.

f. Appeals against decisions of bodies acting under authority from the council of a division to hear cases arising out of residence codes of behaviour may be made to the Hearing Officer of the division, where provision therefore has been made by the council of that division.

g. Appeals against the decision of the Hearing Officer may be made to the Discipline Appeals Committee of the University Council.

h. Where the head of a division has reason to believe that a non-academic offence may have been committed by a group of students including students from that division and from another division or divisions, the head may consult with the head of the other division or divisions involved and may then agree that some or all of the cases will be investigated jointly by the Investigating Officers of the divisions of the students involved and that some or all of the cases will be heard together by the Hearing Officer of one of the divisions agreed upon by the head and presented by an Investigating Officer agreed upon by the heads.

16.4 Interim conditions and measures:

16.4.1 Interim Conditions: Ongoing Personal Safety

In those cases where the allegations of behaviour are serious and, if proven, could constitute a significant personal safety threat to other students or members of the University community, the head of the division is authorized to impose interim conditions that balance the need of complainants for safety with the requirement of fairness to the respondent student. The interim conditions are in no way to be construed as indicative of guilt, and shall remain in place until the charges are disposed of under the Code’s procedures.

16.4.2 Interim Measures: Urgent Situations

In some circumstances, such as those involving serious threats or violent behaviour, it may be necessary to remove a student from the University. Where the head of the division has requested an investigation by the Hearing Officer and the investigation is pending, the Vice-President for Academic Affairs (or his delegate) may, on the advice of the head of the division, suspend the student or students temporarily for up to three working days if, in the opinion of the Vice-President for Academic Affairs (or his delegate), there is reasonable apprehension that the safety of others is endangered, damage to University property is likely to occur, or the continued presence of the student(s) would be disruptive to the legitimate operations of the University. The student(s) shall be informed immediately in writing of the reasons for the suspension and shall be afforded the opportunity to respond. Any such temporary suspension may be reviewed by the Vice-President for Academic Affairs (or his delegate) within the three-day temporary suspension period, following a preliminary investigation, and either revoked or continued. If the suspension is continued, the student(s) may appeal to the Chair (or delegate) of the University Tribunal, who shall hear and decide on the appeal within five days.

16.5 Sanctions:

16.5.1 The student who does not observe the rules and regulations, or commits any act that brings discredit upon the University or refuses to perform his/her duties, may be punished by a warning, or reprimand, or rustication for a limited period, or outright expulsion from the University.

16.5.2 Students who break regulations or endanger the safety of others will be subjected to disciplinary action. Depending on the severity of the offence this may be a written or verbal warning and could result in suspension. In exceptional circumstances, or if behaviour is repeated, a student may be required to leave the university.

16.5.3 The Dean of Societies and Student Development in consultation with the Wardens of Societies/Chaplains of the Societies has a special responsibility, under the Provost for the discipline of students. It is therefore an offence to disobey these officers in the discharge of their duties.

16.5.4 Certain sanctions involve either temporary or permanent removal from the University. The Disciplinary Committee shall determine such sanctions.

16.5.5 The following sanctions or combinations of them may be imposed upon students found to have committed an offence under this Code. In addition, students found to have committed an offence may be placed on conduct probation for a period not to exceed one year, with the provision that one or more of the following sanctions will be applied if the conduct probation is violated.

a. Formal written reprimand.

b. Order for restitution, rectification or the payment of damages.
c. Denial of access to specified services, activities or facilities of the University for a period of up to one year.

16.5.6 The following two sanctions, which would directly affect a student’s registration in a programme, may be imposed only where it has been determined that the offence committed is of such a serious nature that the student’s continued registration threatens the academic function of Regent Ghana or any of its divisions or the ability of other students to continue their programmes of study. Where the sanction of suspension and/or expulsion has been imposed on a student, the Vice-President for Academic Affairs (or his delegate) shall have the power to record that sanction on the student’s academic record and transcript for such length of time as he or she considers appropriate.

16.5.7 A sanction of suspension shall be recorded on the student’s academic record and transcript up to five years. The following wording shall be used: "Suspended from the Regent Ghana for reasons of non-academic misconduct for a period of [length of suspension], [date]."

16.5.8 Expulsion or Dismissal:

a. The strongest form of discipline the University can exercise is dismissal. This will occur when it becomes obvious that the student is not in harmony with the University’s purposes and regulations.

b. Attendance at Regent University College of Science and Technology is a privilege. The Administration therefore reserves the right to dismiss any student whose conduct is deemed harmful to the best interest of the University at any time from any course, or from the University, irrespective of his academic record.

c. A sanction of expulsion shall be permanently recorded on a student’s academic record and transcript. The following wording shall be used: "Expelled from the Regent University College of Science and Technology for reasons of non-academic misconduct, [date]."

17.8.1 All students are required to wear the academic dress appropriate to their status on the following ceremonial occasions:
   a. Matriculation
   b. Graduation

17.8.2 Formal dress is required from Monday to Thursday; on Fridays casual/traditional clothes are permitted, keeping in mind that students are expected to dress so as not to offend in any way the sensibilities of the University community. Moderation and decency should be the cardinal guiding principle.

17.8.3 Attendance to the University’s premises strictly requires formal dressing. Every student is required to put on either (a) African Wear or (b) Women in Suit plus skirt or pair of trousers and men in tie. Students who violate this dress code may be refused entry into the premises of the Campus.

b. Fire:
Every student is expected to read the "Action in Case of Fire" notice in their flats and make sure they have familiarized themselves with fire exit routes from their flats and from communal parts of the Hall. In the event of the fire alarm sounding, students and staff must leave the building at once and assemble in the car park. No one should wait to pick up personal belongings.

c. The University’s corridors and offices are equipped with fire and smoke alarms, and with fire fighting equipment. This equipment must not be tampered with. The Fire Brigade attends whenever the alarm activates and clearly does not want to be called out unnecessarily. Everyone Students and Staff must do everything possible to limit false alarms. Under no circumstances must anyone attempt to cover or remove the smoke detector as this activates the alarm, (and is against University regulations). If the alarm goes off, everyone must evacuate the building immediately and make sure that the head of department or any other member of staff is informed, so that they can deal with the matter and deactivate the alarm. Never should anyone assume an alarm is a false alarm.
e. Fire exit doors/routes must be kept free from obstruction at all times. Corridors and stairways should not be obstructed. These must be clear at all times so that in the event of a fire, rapid exit from buildings would be possible. This is one reason why bikes are not to be brought into buildings.

18.0 The Collegiate System

18.1 One of the many advantages of studying at Regent-Ghana is the opportunity to enjoy the benefits of a large University community whilst belonging to a society. In Regent University of Science and Technology (Regent-Ghana), community living is an essential core of our life. Regent-Ghana believes that in addition to enriching the curriculum, it also has to enrich student life. This is made possible in an environment where the university is divided into smaller communities designated as colleges or ‘societies’. This collegiate system is a major part of the Regent-Ghana experience; making it imperative for all staff (academic and non-academic) to be members of both the University community and for that matter an assigned society.

18.2 Society membership is a lifetime affair. Annual society Festivals shall bring together alumni from all over the world to focus on the employability of society members, scholarship awards, honorary awards and recognition for outstanding contributions, business incubation, university ratings, endowment fund, etc.

18.3 For now, the university is composed of five smaller communities, designated as ‘Societies’. Each Society shall comprise junior members (students) and senior members (academic, senior administrative and professional staff). Faculty members (academic, senior administrative and professional staff) are also members of the societies for the purpose of providing strong leadership, pastoral care and the desired transformative impact on the students. Regent-Ghana’s society model of university structure thereby decentralizes the social and religious oversight of the university. These small communities (societies) are expected to foster a better interaction between the young and the old, employed and unemployed, staff and student, affluent and poor, and people from different faculties and disciplines. This is aimed at achieving the university’s core values, especially, its diversity (social, spiritual and intellectual). Without very vibrant societies (smaller communities), the benefits of university education will be restricted only to the acquisition of knowledge.

18.4 The five Regent-Ghana Societies (Mckeown Society, Stott Society, Nkrumah Society, Anim Society, Ubuntu Society) are not teaching bodies, neither are they residential. They are to foster interdisciplinary contact among staff, postgraduate and undergraduate students, and provide a social network for every section of the student body. Information about Regent-Ghana societies is available on the University’s Website or from the Office of the Dean of Societies and Students Development. All successful applicants to the university will be sent society information with their admission letters.

18.6.2 Society Mentor System:

   a. The Society Mentor System has been designed to provide academic and pastoral support, normally involving a Mentor who is independent of the department in which the student is pursuing studies. The Society Mentorial relationship is a key feature of Society membership.

   b. In each Society, the ‘Mentorial’ system shall offer an opportunity for supervising and counseling members, and ensuring their academic, social and spiritual well-being is well catered for. Apart from the weekly chapel services organized by the university and coordinated by the chaplaincy board, each society shall organize chapel services or musical programmes every semester.

   c. In addition to the formal Student Services on the campuses, the responsibilities of the Mentors shall include counselling, financial advice, health and welfare services and guidance in personal development.

They will be happy to talk over and help with any problems of a more personal nature. A Mentor on duty shall be available from 8.00a.m. to 8.00p.m.; from Monday to Friday.

f. The names of all Mentors and their contact details shall be displayed in the Societies’ Office.

18.7 The Society's role:

18.7.1 The Society's role is to provide a friendly, safe and stimulating environment for academic work at the various campuses of Regent University College of Science and Technology. The Societies are there to support and develop all aspects of University life - academic, social, sporting and cultural - and to do so in a way that is relevant to the needs of students and staff from a wide variety of social backgrounds, and with a wide variety of future career expectations.

18.7.2 The Societies exist to create the right environment for the exploration of new ideas among members of the University community. The Societies are meant to add an extra dimension to the specific Department-based learning involved in the academic programmes of Regent Ghana.

18.7.3 The Societies shall run counseling services for all members of the University. They shall offer safe places in which student can resolve personal and emotional difficulties.

18.7.4 The Societies shall be concerned about the students’ academic lives as well as where they will attend meetings or tutorials for most of their lives in Regent-Ghana.

18.7.5 They shall also serve as the nerve centres of the social lives of both students and staff, i.e. entertainment, sports, music and drama, religious services and events. In the societies, friends are made quickly and there are many opportunities to add to Society life in several different ways.

18.7.6 Incase a member of a society will be consistently absent from, i.e. non-attendance to society programmes and activities, a written permission must be obtained from the Warden of the Society.
18.8 Society Meetings: Common Hour

18.8.1 The academic calendar includes a block of time called “Common Hour,” which shall take place twice a month (every other Thursday mornings and evenings), during which no lectures or committee meetings shall be scheduled or held. It is a period reserved solely for societal activities and events.

18.8.2 The venue for these events shall vary, depending on their content and genre, but their regularity throughout the academic year shall not. The intended audience is the entire University community; students, faculty, and staff. The purpose will be to rejoice in our collegiate system, to interact with each other, and to deepen our common understanding, concern and delight.

18.8.3 The Common Hour is expected to advance the academic purposes of the Societies. Its events should broaden and provide fresh angles of vision for members of the Society in which most such events are scheduled by individual academic departments acting in isolation. The Common Hour can thus be a means through which new avenues of interdisciplinary discourse can be opened and broadened.

18.8.4 In addition, it is hoped that the Common Hour will enable new opportunities for community-building among faculty, students, and staff outside the classroom. If the Common Hour is to grow and flourish, and attract the entire University community to share experiences and concerns that relate to contemporary life and culture, a wide and diverse range of campus constituencies will need to propose events.

18.9 Maintaining Contact with your Society:

18.9.1 Though Regent-Ghana students and staff “live-out” (literary go out of the Regent-Ghana community by virtue of graduating or change of job), every one of them shall remain members of their respective Societies and shall be accorded the privileges and responsibilities of the membership of the University community.

18.9.2 In addition to providing a focus for social and recreational life, the Societies are important points of contact with the University on official, academic and social matters. Subsequently, anybody must be able to get information across to any member of any society especially, in emergency situations. It is therefore essential that Societies be kept updated on the correct term time, address and telephone numbers of all their members in and out of the University.

18.10 Society Subscription:

18.10.1 The Society Subscription entitles a member of the society to the rights, privileges and responsibilities of society membership. Subscription for membership may be paid in two installments – at the start of each semester. Members will receive a subscription notice spelling out details of the payments due and how to pay. Members who do not settle their accounts promptly shall incur surcharges. Any member who may have any difficulties or concerns may contact the Bursar of his or her Society.
18.10.2 All monies may be paid in at the Warden’s Office. Cheques should be made payable to the Regent University College of Science and Technology and the cheque number submitted to the Bursar and Warden of the Society.

18.10.3 The amount to be paid as Subscription shall be set by the Common Room Chairs in consultation with the Committee of Wardens before the beginning of the October Semester.

18.11 Common Rooms:

18.11.1 Each Society shall have Junior Common Room (JCR) for students and Senior Common Room (SCR) for faculty, staff and other senior members of the University.

18.11.2 The Common Rooms shall provide the fora for interaction between its members as well as interaction between the junior and senior members of the each society; the junior members (students) shall have the privilege of a closer relationship with their mentors and the wider community through various activities organized by the societies.

18.12 Senior Common Room:

18.12.1 Within each society, the Senior Common Room (often abbreviated to SCR) shall consist of the academic officers who hold a degree. The term can refer to both

a. Actual persons (the scholar and faculty members). Always, this consists of any Senior non-Teaching staff member, Professors, Associate Professors, Assistant Professors, Lecturers, and Fellows (who are individuals holding a Doctoral degree, a Professional Degree or members of the University Council). In many cases it also consists of the Mentors and Teaching Fellows (TFs) or Teaching Assistants (TAs) who teach undergraduates.

b. The room where they occasionally hold meetings.

18.12.2 The term "Senior Common Room" stands in contrast to Junior Common Room (for undergraduates) and Middle Common Room (for graduate students and all other staff members). However at Regent Ghana, SCR could be said to stand for Senior Combination Room because the Senior Common Room membership is open to members of staff of the University, postgraduate students and others outside the University who are interested in the life of the Society. It shall bring together people from many different walks of life with the aim of contributing to the life of the Society through the organization of a number of academic and social events.

18.12.3 The SCR's main contribution to the life of the Society shall be to present and represent the Society to the wider community beyond the University in Ghana, partly by raising the profile of the Society in the local community and by involving representative members of key local institutions and social structures in the Society. To this end, the SCRs shall organise social and educational events of stimulating programmes.
18.12.4 Also, the SCRs shall have pastoral roles, aiming to help enrich the lives of the students in the Society by:
   a. Encouraging their participation in the wider public
   b. Encouraging academic excellence
   c. Directly contributing to pastoral and tutorial support for students.

18.13 Junior Common Room:

18.13.1 The term Junior Common Room (JCR) is used to refer to the collection, group or organized body of students in a Society, a constituent part of the University. The term is also used to refer to the physical or public room set aside for the students' use; colloquially, it is also often used as 'shorthand' for the JCR Committee (e.g. "He sits on the JCR"). The Junior Common Room stands in contrast to the Senior Common Room, which refers to the faculty, staff and advisors/mentors in a society.

18.13.2 The function of JCRs is typically to see to the social and welfare aspects of the societies. They may also have representational elements, either to the University or to the students' Parliament which is the ruling council of the Students’ Union of the University. They are also often a unit for inter-mural competition within the university, such as sports or quiz competitions. The Junior Common Room provides students with many of their most cherished memories of their time at the University. The JCR helps students to retain a sense of affiliation to their societies while living 'off-campus.'

18.13.3 The Junior Common Room (JCR) therefore shall be the platform on which most student welfare services, sporting opportunities, and virtually all entertainment programmes shall be based, as well as the provision of support and resources for a whole range of student activities.

18.13.4 Each JCR shall have an elected committee of officers that shall co-ordinate its sports, social and religious events; the quality of life in a Society shall therefore depend a lot on the hard work of its committee members.

18.13.5 In Regent-Ghana, a JCR shall consist of all undergraduate student members of a society. It is a subset of the Society and the University and shall represent the interests and views of students in the society. One automatically becomes a member of the JCR of one of the Societies in the University when he/she becomes a student of the University.

18.13.5 The JCR's income shall come from members’ annual subscriptions.

18.13.6 JCR Committees:

   a. The Junior Common Room Committee also referred to as the "JCR Committee" (JCRC), "JCR Bench" or "JCR Exec" (short for "Executive Committee") of a particular society shall be the elected governing body of the JCR of that society.

   b. The JCRCs shall be responsible for the organization of Societal JCR activities and shall offer welfare help to students in the form of welfare representatives who can offer advice or give contact details of other groups to students through informal drop-in sessions.

18.13.7 JCRC Executive Officers

a. Normally, yearly elections to each JCRC shall be held in November with student members of the various societies presenting themselves for election to the four key positions of Chair, Vice-Chair, General Secretary and Treasurer. To qualify for election to those four positions, a student must have successfully completed at least one academic year of study in the University.

b. The above Clause not withstanding, when JCRC elections should be held at any other time either than November as stated above, nominees in their second semester of level 100 shall qualify to be elected JCR Governors.

c. However, Officers so elected shall submit themselves to their JCRs for confirmation or rejection at the next polls in the following November.

d. The elected Chair of each society shall also serve as the Junior Common Room Governor of that society.

e. The JCRC elections shall be held on the Societies Meeting Day where student members of each society shall vote for who they want in the positions within the Society. The elected candidates shall then serve for a whole year.

f. Any member of the JCR Committee (apart from the Chair) could contest in the Parliamentary elections to represent their Society in Regent Ghana Students’ Parliament (RGSP) so as to have a say on issues affecting the whole student population, not just those in their societies.

g. All elected Parliamentarians who hitherto were not JCRC members automatically become members by virtue of their election to the Students Parliament.

18.13.8 Non-Executive Officers:

The JCRC executive officers shall appoint a team of non-executive officers, not more than twelve in number from among their members to support them in the discharge of their responsibilities. These non-executive officers shall have a diverse range of responsibilities and shall help to ensure the smooth running of the JCRs. The non-executive officers’ positions could include but not limited to the following:

- Freshers' Representative
- Welfare Officer
- Employment Officer
- Alumni Representative
- Yearbook Editor
- International Students' Representative
- Projects Officer
- etc.
18.13.9 JCR Chairs:

a. The JCR Chairs (Governors) of all Regent Ghana societies are automatically members of the Students’ Parliament.

b. There shall be a JCR Chairs’ Committee (CHAIRSCOM) that shall meet in the even-numbered weeks of each semester to brainstorm the challenges facing their societies.

18.13.10 JCR Meetings:

a. These are simply meetings between the JCR Committees and their JCR members where a rough agenda, drawn up and published before the meeting, is discussed. Such meetings are a fundamental part of Society life, and are expected to provide students with the opportunity to ask questions to their JCR officers, air their opinions on any matters relevant to the Society, and vote on JCR policies and positions. Agenda for such meetings must include those concerning future events and students’ welfare. JCR meetings are not expected to be formal; however, they must be both interesting and productive.

b. Minutes of the immediate past JCR meeting and the agenda for the Forthcoming meeting must be posted on the JCR notice boards and on the e-Campus prior to the next meeting.

c. JCR meetings shall be held twice in a month on Campus during the Common Hour period.

19.2.2 It shall consist of the following:
Twenty elected representatives (four each) of the Five Societies of Regent Ghana:
   a. Five Governors (representing the five societal JCRs)

The advice is for victims to try to confront the offending person by telling them that their behaviour is unacceptable. If this does not stop the problem, victims are advised to keep a note of all incidents and then make a report to the appropriate person, i.e. a Senior Mentor, RGSU Welfare Officer, Speaker of Students Parliament, and the University Chaplain or the Counselor. If problems of harassments do occur, victims should boldly confide in any of the above mentioned officers. They are all sympathetic, and may have dealt with similar situations before.
